

December 13, 1951. The meeting of Alpha Phi Omega was held opened at 7:34 P.M. in room 11 of the Physical Education Building. It was decided that those interested in the Red Cross First Aid Course would spend the time stated by the Red Cross in order to receive credit for it. The officers will hold a meeting to draw up the constitution to be presented to this chapter for acceptance.

Saturday, January 19, 1952, a demonstration and practice workshop will be set up by the American Red Cross in the Cage introducing the new manual method of First Aid. Thirty delegates from each of the six New England States will be present. ~~They will~~ ~~six members~~ of H.P.O. This provides an opportunity for six members of H.P.O. to ^{render} give service ~~at~~ to this group as ticket collectors and guides.

~~The~~
A Scout Exhibit of Hampshire Franklin^{county} will be held April 5, 1952 and it was suggested that H.P.O. organize an exhibit in the form of a publicity booth with which to Project Alpha Phi Omega.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:05 P.M.
