Order of Business:

Ed Swenson suggested that a standard A.F.O. badge be purchased for former president Bill Whitmore and it was agreed that funds be taken from the treasury to make this purchase.

It was definitely decided that two chapter meetings be held each month, one to be formal, the other informal.

It was suggested that for the first formal meeting that Mr. Sheldon speak on conservation. (Feb. 11th.)

Several proposals concerning social activities for the chapter were made. This included a hayride, a picnic at Mt. Toby, a square dance and several others. It was decided that a committee decide what could be done about sponsoring social events and make suggestions.

It was voted to increase dues for members to 75¢ per semester, and pledges 50¢ per semester.

The possibility of pledges, as a specific project, work with the Small schools tournament.

It was agreed that pledges for the coming semester be sent invitation cards and that a definite time limit for inducting pledges be set. The next initiation was set for the first meeting in March.

A definite place for holding chapter meetings as well as for storing supplies was discussed.

Charlie Lincoln announced that he had secured the aid of four pledges to act as ushers at the next University concert.

The chapter has volunteered to take care of arranging the fires at the coming winter carnival picnic at the College pond.

The feasibility of members serving as Den Chiefs here in Amherst was discussed.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:15.

Respectfully submitted.
