

November 17, 1954 meeting of Kappa Omicron Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega .

The treasurer's report was given and it was stated if dues were not paid by December 1st members would go the inactive list.

Tentative plans were made for an open meeting on December 8.

Report of pledge ceremony for Russ Burton and a pledge meeting held on November 16th was given by Bob Edmunds.

Jack McCann reported that little help had been done on counting money for Adelpia in connection with the Campus Chest Drive. The money collected Thursday afternoon for the drive was to be turned over to Russ Taylor or Polly LeClair in Arnold.

Ted Small Moved that the following resolution be adopted: That the rituals and ceremonies conducted by this chapter be carried out in a manner appropriate to our status as a fraternity, including the wearing of correct attire. The resolution was approved but not voted upon.

There was a discussion on ways to finance delegates to conventions this year and in years to come.

A committee was formed to investigate means of raising funds and also investigations into social functions that this chapter could sponsor. The chairman of this committee is George Fogg assisted by Jim McCann, Frank Putnam, Jack Park, and Russ Burton.

There was a discussion on the proposed amendments to the National Constitution to be voted on at the National Convention. A motion was made to have the corr. secretary duplicate them and give a copy to all members and pledges.

The Ugly Man Contest was discussed.

Robert Varley was voted on as scouting advisor.

A book collection discussed for Mr. Robinson.

Respectfully submitted,

Robert Hutchins

Secretary