

A.P.O.
April 20, 1955

Topics:

Two work projects that are being considered;
April 30, 1955, work day at Camp Henderson, and also another work day at Camp Chesterfield May 7 or 14, 1955.

The Mount Toby Recreation Project offered to give to the chapter their project. Motion, made, seconded, and accepted: To accept the Mount Toby Recreation Project
If the club wants to relinquish it.

In connection ^{Rhodes} to the above Jim McCann was appointed to see Mr. Ganley, a forestry instructor, if he would like to become a faculty advisor.

The following pledges were voted to be accepted into the chapter: Abt, Romancier, Burton, Park, Crow, Keogh.
The membership ceremony will be held at Mem. Hall
April 27, 1955. Refreshments will be served.

The following people are to be seen about becoming advisors; Ganley, Lee, ^{Rhodes} Ritchie, Bennett. ^{Keeping them as advisors} Elections are rapidly approaching. Members of the nominating committee; Small, Killam, Taylor, and Mr. Tuttle. A meeting will be held at Mr. Tuttle's house Sunday, April 24, 1955.

It was brought before the chapter that the members may room together again next year. Members must go as a group, and not send one man to sign for all.

Bob Bridges discussed the merits of having a scroll or some facimile for the installation group to read instead of the books we now use. This matter was postponed for further discussion.

Respectfully submitted,
