Old Business:

On Sunday, May 15, 1955, a group of boys are going to work at Camp Chesterfield.

Service project chairman is going to see if we can help with the freshmen next year.

General consensus of opinion was that the frat. should check on the Shutesbury Church before we entered in on the project.

Due to lack of interest on the part of the members, Ted Small, our past service project chairman, has resigned from the fraternity.

New Business:

George Fogg brought up the idea that a calendar for next year events should be made up. Nothing definite was decided.

Regional conference was shelved again.

Following the business members meeting the installation of officers ceremony was held.

Respectfully Submitted,
Evan R. Smalley
