

meeting was adjourned & open meeting followed. — The program consisted of a film called the big bounce about satellite relayed communication. Reaction was favorable and the consensus was that more films should be shown in the future.