Lorin Johnson gave the Service Committee Report for the first semester and asked the brothers for better participation in service projects for the coming semester. Marty Rosenberg, the second semester service chairman, next outlined the various service projects ~~will~~ which will be undertaken by the chapter.

Donald Kawash gave the Membership Committee Report for the first semester and told about the ritual changes in the pledge and brotherhood initiations, the success of the pledge project, the pledge program, and the pledge meetings. Also included in the report were how it, the pledge program, can be possibly improved. Charles Hadley summarized the next semester's work on membership.

Jack Kooyoomjian gave a report saying that the chapter might now have a profit of $80 from the Corsage sale.

Dave Mitchell gave a brief report on the Silver Beaver Award ceremonies.

The election of a Treasurer for the chapter followed. Brother Ed Pelletier is the Treasurer for our chapter for the Spring semester.

Bob Johnson, John Goodrich, and Roy Pinto volunteered to be on the by-laws committee.

It was reminded that three brothers, Dave Mathieson, Bill Landis, and Mike Berrini, will be on the General Electric College Bowl on January 26, 1964 and that the chapter should support them in any way they can.

Move: to invite Tony Amico and Ed Derosa of The Critique staff to attend discussion of two motions relating to chapter support of The Critique. Carried.

Move: to suspend rules so that we can consider the financial motion first. Carried.

Move: that APO loan The Critique $110 and that any other financial commitments by APO be brought before the chapter in the proper manner. The loan must be paid back to account 315 as soon as Critique acquires proper funds to do so. Passed.

Move: that the Kappa Omicron chapter of Alpha Phi Omega endorses the survey of courses and publication of a periodical report by the staff of the Critique and encourages participation and support by members of its brotherhood, as The Critique seeks to become a fully self-supporting project.

There will be a Gamma Sigma Sigma initiation on Thursday night, January 9, 1964, and all brothers of Alpha Phi Omega are invited to attend.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:15 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

John A. Kucharski
